The Merchants' National.

The annual meeting of the Merchants' National bank was held Tuesday afternoon. It was the fullest meeting ever known in the history of the bank. Of the 4000 shares all but 122 were represented either by the stockholders or proxies.

The first question discussed related to the new trust company. W. E. Peck, J. L. Edwards, L. D. Hazen. Geo. A. Bingham and others argued that the new bank should be kept entirely separate from the Merchants' bank in every way. The discussion was an earnest and spirited one and it was finally voted almost unanimously to keep the two institutions absolutely separate. Then came the election of directors with this result: W. E. Peck, L. D. Hazen, H. E. Folsom, George Ide, W. P. Fairbanks, W. L. Pearl, I. M. Smith. All of these received substantially the vote of the putting a good deal of work into these of the North church and a devoted case, despite the fact that large num-Col. Dennis E. The "mustache club" is a great in stitution. Join it, if you want a little innocent fun at your own expense. Already a few downy hairs of different quality as well as quantity, can be seen after close investigation, upon the faces of some. There is nothing like patient effort.

There is yet some misunderstanding with regard to the bill still held by the St. Johnsbury house against the stu dents for the supper ordered Dec. 17. A half dozen or more signed a paper signifying their willingness to help

LOCAL NOTICES.

Dr. E. W. Royce who is now located at the Avenue house, St. Johnsbury, is treating a large number of patients from all parts of the surrounding country. The doctor is becoming very popular in this section as well as in other places. His advice is sought by the medical fraternity wherever he goes.

Confined to House five Weeks. After being confined to the house for five weeks with a very bad cold upon my lungs, coughing violently a greater part of the time, and trying all the different kinds of medicine. I procured a 35 cent bottle of "King's Juniper Tar Cough Balsam;" its effect was wonderful; almost the first dose produces relief, and before two-thirds of the bottle was gone it effected a permanent and the state of the cold. was gone it effected a permanent cure. No family can afford to be without it. Respectfully.
